DOING ALL IN HIS POWER TO KEEP THE PERFUTE

Kingston, Jamaica, June 2 - Latest mail advice Kingsten, Jamaica, June 2.—Latest mail advices from Cayenne state that Cabral, the Mapa et Oyapok chief who has been recognized and supported in his hostility to the French by the Government of the Brazilian State of Para, is still making things lively in and about his district. It eppears that the Cabral who was killed in a conflict between the French outposts and the Mapans about the end of April was not, as was at first reported, the redoubtable chief himself, but a relative of his. Cabral was slightly wounded in the fight and was carried off when the French began to retreat and his presence was no longer needed. This gave rise to the French report of his death on the field. On May I, the anniversary of the first hattle which brought Cabral into preminence and results in the death of Captain Lenter, he arrived at the city of Para, where he had an entities in the popular recontion.

The Frenci caim that their Guisna colony must extend as far as the bink of that river, while the Brazilians main-tain that the French possessions should not extend beyond the Oyanok, and that the district lying be-tween the two rivers belongs to them. That territory tain that the French possessions should not extend beyond the Oyapok, and that the district lying between the two rivers belongs to them. That territory has been contested since the treaty of Utrecht, in 1713, and it has been occupied by a population composed partially of French emigrants from Guiana, but mainly by Brazilians. Auriterous fields were recently discovered in the region, and that brought the controversy to a climax.

The French settlers at Common and Mapa had for leader a certain Captain Traine; the Brazilian inhabitants recognized as their chief a man by the name of Cabral. The latter having ordered last year the imprisonment of Traine, the Governor of French Guiana sent an expedition to demand redress. Captain Lunier laced from the guahoat Bengell at Mapa with marines, and was killed, with some of his coldiers, by Cabral and his Brazilians, who thought the involers were fillmisters. Negotiation were opened immediately in regard to that fatal misunderstanding between the Governments of Brazil and France. Both admitted that a wrong had been committed on each side. The French Government recalled Governor Cherveln, who had ordered the Bengall expedition, and replaced him by M. Lamathe, who has just had a successor in the person of M. Danel. The Brazilian President rehad been committed on each some the comment recalled Governor Chervein, who had or dered the Bengall expedition, and replaced him by M. OBITUARY.

THE REV. DR. J. BRECKENRIDGE GIBSON. The Rev. Dr. J. Breekenridge Gibson, who died at Williamsbridge on Sunday, was one of the well-known educators in this section of the country, and an efficient, able and conscientious clergyman of the Episcopal Church in America. For twenty-two years he was the rector of St. John's School, Sing Sing, N. Y., an institution from which many repre-sentative New-York men and others throughout the country have been graduated, and these many "old boys" will be pained to learn of the death of their much-belowed principal. Dr. Gibson lived for his school and for the welfare of his boys, and his life was a beautiful example of the Christian and the man. Two years ago he retired from his school and for the last year he had given his services to St. George's Church, Williamsbridge, where he die from apoplexy, at the funeral of a parishloner.

Dr. Gibson was born in Trenton, N. J., in 1824, and came from Knickerbocker stock, being a lineal descendant of Governor Peter Stuyvesant. He was graduated from Princeton College and the General Theological Seminary, being ordained to the priest-hood in 1847. He was in charge successively at St. John's Church, Cohoes, N. Y.; Church of the Holy Innocents, Highland Falls, N. Y.; the Church at Haverstraw, N. Y., and Bethesda Church, Saratoga Springs, N. Y. Just prior to the last-named charge he was rector of Burlington College, Burlington, N. J. In 1869 he assumed the control of St. John's School, Sing Sing, N. Y., succeeding Colonel Marlhorough Churchill, and there for twenty-two years he labored unceasingly in the work which resuited in sending forth hundreds of well-trained and educated boys ready for college life and business pursuits. He was loved by his boys, his family and his friends. His death ended a career re plete with good and useful works, the influence of which will be carried through life by the many over whom he axercised his careful and loving guardianship.

In his church work Dr. Gibson acquired a repuguardianship.

In his chuich work Dr. Gibson acquired a reputation as a successful organizer and builder-up of struggling parishes. During his life he held many offices in the church, among them being Dean of Westchester County and trustee of the General Theological Seminary. He received the degree of S. T. D. from St. Stephen's College, Annandale, N. Y. Dr. Gibson leaves a widow, who was Miss Frances P. Wood, of New-York, and two children, B. Stuyvesant Gibson and Mrs. Ralph Brandreth, of Sing Sing. Funeral services will be held at St. George's Church, Williamsbridge, to-day, at 2:15. The "old boys" of St. John's School and Dr. Gibson's former pupils at Burlington College are invited by Mrs. Gibson to attend the funeral. Dr. Gibson had been ill with malarial fever for some time and had not recovered when he was requested to go to the house of Thomas Doane, about a mile from the rectory, and conduct Mr. Doane's funeral. Many persons had gathered at Mr. Doane's house when the rector and his wife arrived there. Dr. Gibson was selzed with an attack of faintness as he was robing himself for the service. Although a physician was in the house and did everything in his power to ald the rector, Dr. Gibson died in two hours. Another clergyman was called to conduct the funeral services over the body of Mr. Doane before the body of Dr. Gibson was removed from the house.

WILLIAM A. URE.

William A. Ure, president of the Board of Trade of Newark, N. J., died at 6:30 o'clock last night at his house. Thirteenth-ave. and South Seventh-st. Newark, after a long illness resulting from a can-cer. He was one of the proprietors of "The Newark Sunday Call." Mr. Ure was born on April 8, 1839, at West Farms, N. Y., of poor perents. When eighteen years old he went West and worked on a farm in Nebraska. In 1838 he returned, and after a few years in Washington and this city he became a reporter for "The Newark Journal." He was afterward business manager of "The Newark Morning Register," and in 1873, with James Scheck, he bought "The Sunday Call," then a worthless propbought "The Sunday Call," then a worthless property, which in a few years became exceedingly profitable. He became a member of the Newark Board of Trade, and was elected president in 1294. He also served as a member of the State Reformatory Commission by appointment of Governor Werts. Mr. Ure leaves a wife and two children. The funeral will take place on Friday at 2 p. m. from the house.

CAPTAIN ROBERT BURNETT SMITH.

The funeral of Captain Robert Burnett Smith, who died on Saturday, will be held at 4 p. m. to-day at Christ Church, Seventy-first-st. and Boulevard. Captain Smith first entered the United States service on May 14, 1861, as first lieutenant in the 11th Infantry. He was brevetted captain, October 1, 1864, for gailantry. Before the war he was a mem-ber of the 7th Regiment, N. C. S. N. Y., and went to the front with the regiment at the first call for
